2025 Scholarship Award Program

Alaska Air Group Credit Union offers a scholarship fund for the benefit of its members and families. The purpose of the scholarship is to recognize and provide financial assistance to college or trade/technical school students pursuing an education in any degree program of study.

This scholarship award is subject to the following rules and regulations.

1. The candidate must be a member of Alaska Air Group Credit Union to be eligible to receive an award. Non-members may apply by proving eligibility through a family member (member of your household) that is a current Alaska Air Group Credit Union member, or employment with Alaska Air Group. However, applicants that are selected for an award must establish individual membership with Alaska Air Group Credit Union before receiving their awarded funds. Employees and family members of Alaska Air Group Credit Union and the Board of Directors are not eligible.
2. The candidate must be a senior attending high school or any year in college, and must have maintained a 3.0 (“B”) average over the last three quarters or two semesters.
3. The recipient must attend a college certified by a regional accreditation association, or a school recognized by the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools & Colleges of Technology (ACCSCCT). The recipient must provide proof of verified registration at an approved school in order to receive award funds.
4. The application must be on the official Alaska Air Group Credit Union application form and received by the credit union by April 7, 2025. Mailed applications received after the deadline but postmarked by the designated date will be accepted. The award(s) will be presented during the credit union’s June Board meeting, which the recipient(s) may be asked to attend.
5. A committee appointed by the credit union’s Board of Directors shall select awardees. Applications shall be modified to remove names so a “blind” selection process may be made without influence.
6. The Board of Directors of Alaska Air Group Credit Union shall determine the number and amounts of awards. This year the Board of Directors approved a $10,000 award amount to be distributed among the winners selected by the Scholarship Committee. The Board maintains discretion to adjust this amount. In addition, the Board has set an award minimum is $500 per selected recipient.
7. A recipient is limited to one award per year, and two awards per lifetime. Scholarships are awarded one time only and are not renewable.
8. Payment of the award shall be made directly to a recipient upon submission of verified registration at an approved school.
